Written by Coeur d'Alene's own Susan Nipp, the book about the Adventures of Mudgy & Millie come to life in this scavenger hunt adventure.

Mudgy Moose and Millie Mouse play a game of hide-and-seek. Millie hides while Mudgy searches for her along the shores of Lake Coeur d'Alene. Children join in the fun as Mudgy wanders along the lake, across town, and through the park in his quest to find Millie, who was hiding close by all the time.

The world-acclaimed sculptor of Mudgy & Millie, Terry Lee, will meet the guests at the first stop on the tour, at the base of Tubbs Hill. Terry will escort the group through beautiful McEuen Park with its water features and a fun playground the kids can visit later. It is on to the Coeur d'Alene Library, the 2nd stop. Mudgy will meet us with a special reading of the book, and a special take-away gift for each family! Want a photo with Mudgy – we'll be sure you get one!

It's off to find the next statue of Mudgy & Millie, but wait! Ice cream and cookies await at the snack bar at Bear Paw Cookies. After indulging in gooey goodness, we'll look for our 3rd stop along bustling Sherman Avenue. The statues of Mudgy and Millie will be the thing to find on the trail. So keep your eyes peeled, little ones. You may want a photo opportunity with the most-photographed moose and mouse in the world!

Then on to stop 4 in the Coeur d'Alene City Park, where another surprise awaits those who find Mudgy & Millie (and maybe a huge play structure!
